Points of Interest

Birding hotspots around the Island

King Island is home and host to a wide range of birds. Species present on the island varies, according to the time of year and the weather conditions. Driving around the island and walking any beach provides great opportunities to see birds. Suggested sites are Sea Elephant River; Shag Lagoon Bird Hide, Yellow Rock Walk, Disappointment Bay.

Calcified Forest - Walk

These remains of an ancient forest are up to 7000 years old and were revealed when the lime-laden sand which had covered and preserved the stumps, was exposed.

Cape Wickham Lighthouse - Point of Interest

At 48m tall, the Cape Wickham Lighthouse is the tallest in Australia. The lighthouse was constructed in 1861 and still guards the entrance to the strait today. Also within the reserve are the gravesites of some of the crew of Loch Leven, a ship that was wrecked nearby.

King Island Gallery - Exhibitions + Workshops + Gifts & Info

Open by volunteer 1.00pm to 3.00pm daily (not Tue)
Always showcasing local arts, community projects, resident artists with a constant flow of exhibitions. Explore unique and authentic stories of the K.I. people in each room.

Huxley Hill Wind Farm

Visit this informative visual display site housed in a shelter which overlooks the wind turbines. Also includes an electronic display showing the current wind speed and power produced.

King Island Historical Museum Open 2.00pm to 4.00pm (Tue, Thu, Sat & Sun)

A must visit, featuring displays unique to King Island's history; shipwrecks, mining, sealing, lighthouses, agriculture and telecommunications. Manned by volunteers.

King Island Kelp Industries - Visitor Centre Open Mon - Fri (Unmanned)

Bull Kelp is collected from beaches, hung, dried, processed and mostly shipped to Scotland and we are all consumers of it.

King Island Maritime Trail

The Maritime Trail features interpretive signage close to the sites of many of the most notable wrecks around our shores. Collect the Ship Wrecks & Safe Haven booklet from the tourism information section at the airport.

Pennys Lagoon is a rare (found in only three locations in the world) "perched" or "suspended" lake. Its freshwater is held by compacted sand and organic matter. No stream or underground aquifer feeds into or flows out of the lake. The lagoon is a favourite swimming spot for locals and visitors.

Sea Elephant River is King Island's only tidal river and is a haven for water birds which exits at the southern end of the Lavinia Nature Reserve. A walk along the river provides easy access to view King Island's abundant bird species.

Seal Rocks - Walk

The coast here is dominated by the tallest cliffs on the Island rising to 60 metres. Follow the easy 80 metre boardwalk to the lookout to see the spectacular view of the cliffs and across the Southern Ocean.

Soldier Settler Trail

Around the Island there are a number of interpretative signs about the history of King Island's Soldier Settlers.

In emergency call 000 for Police, Fire or Ambulance.
Dial 112 from a Mobile phone.
